

I do not feel that radio and tv stations should be allowed the exemption for telemarketing calls. They should be prohibited just like all the rest. Personally, I feel the exemption for donations for charity should not be allowed. It is my feeling that it opens the door for persons asking for donations that do not represent a charity. Many persons do fall for donations requests that are not real, especially elderly people.